Owner Says...Sell This Block

Our owners won't get the opportunity now to build on their ideal block and have now said "WE WANT IT SOLD". This is a good size level block at 747 square metres and should be easy to build on. There is very little land available around the area for this price, so don't beat around the bush trying to find cheaper. Position amongst other brand new homes and within a short distance to the new Coles centre and school, this should tick all the boxes. This is value for money buying. For a copy of the site plan and any other info, please call Greg Laws.
